"Upon Still Water"

A curly blonde disaster
Lyn' out there
He said you make me feel
As desired as a crackling fire
She said I saw a man
Out walking upon still waters
I wanna lie beside you
In a warm bed
Feel your heart beat
In my throat
And no one, no one stopped to stare
There he was all alone
Out walking upon still waters
He said you can feel the fall
All at once upon the land
She said you don't know what's really missed
Until you walk upon still waters
A curly blonde disaster
