Everybody Let's Go!

Little Red Riding Hood went riding on her bike
She got just a little distracted cause she see something she liked
Just because it aint grandma's house don't mean that it's all good
Cause no one cares if she's in there
And the wolf's still in the woods

(Beautiful Losers)

To you they might look beautiful, but they're rotten in the inside

(Beautiful Losers)

Where there's so much dirt up under the carpet
There's a big ol' lump they can't hide

Here they go again
Wearing disguises of your friends
Watch the bullets ricochet off of the armor
Like pa pa rrat pa pa raat (hey! hey! )
You know they won't succeed
You know relentless they will be
You should tell them clear the way
And tell em' to step back ba-ba-back

Kill Joy!
Kill Joy!
Kill Joy!
Kill Joy!
Watch them bullets ricochet like
Pa-pa-pa-pa-pa pa pa pa pa!
Kill Joy!

Everybody Let's Go!

Think back when you met them
You'll see it in their glances
That's the seed
That led to trees
Which eventually led to branches
Cold as a snowball

Downhill to avalanches
Believe you me
When the weather is cold
Is when the devil does his dances

(Beautiful Losers)
Don't you wonder why
You always end up in last?
(Beautiful Losers)
But I Wouldn't Place You Anything
That is Karma from your past

Wake up little boy
There's no spaceship, you're employed
To zap that shit away
Like za-za zap za-za zap
Yeah I Respect Your Needs
But you gotta stand up and face the fees
And that's when you say
Give your shoulder a
Ta-ta tap ta-ta tap

Kill Joy!
Kill Joy!
Kill Joy!
Watch them bullets ricochet like
Pa-pa-pa-pa-pa pa pa pa pa!
Kill Joy
