I was at show backstage untying my shoes
There was your friend from wireimage standing beside her was you
And Nigo told me dont do it my nice image would go up in fumes
The head without the ears heard it so you end up in my room

[Chorus:]

Textin me a hundred times
Callin me a hundred times
Hope it is not you this time
Damn I gotta change my sign
Textin me you're gonna die
Call the psychiatric line
Friends and family should know why
Reportin this as a crime

I bet you heard this song wonderin who im talkin
bout[x3]
You!

In this frustrated nights emails that evoke tears
I like you I like you I love you I think im dying My asked you for your email address she said she'd take it from here
She said she'd tried to walk you through the picture but for you nothing is clear
Now she too is frustrated and damn thats been a year

[Chorus:]

Textin me a hundred times
Callin me a hundred times
Hope it is not you this time
Damn I gotta change my sign
Textin me you're gonna die
Call the psychiatric line
Friends and family should know why
Reportin this as a crime

I bet you heard this song wonderin who im talkin
bout[x3]

You!

[Bridge: Shae]

As you listen to this song

I hope your thought process evolves

Its not your reasoning thats wrong

Its that deep down everything is gone

The place is empty no lights on

Instead happiness you'll be sprawled

Across the face of your hearts wall

But you'll press pause and you'll just call....

[Pharrell:] oh baby you cant help yourself [x2]

I bet you heard this song wonderin who im talkin

bout[x3]

You!
