I can smell it when I go outside (outside) then it just pours it gives us peace then all in the town is quiet (outside) thats what rains for all the kids see rain and scream no no

run off the bus and they will just stay in me i love her rain fills the potholes me and my cell but thats what we played in ever wonder exactly where the sun goes did it go or did something shade it?
the sun gives light cuz it is the window
the rain gives life cuz it is amazing

run off the bus and they will just stay in
did it go or did something shade it?

the inside of clouds (the inside of clouds) thats the window to the sky(?)
proves it
the inside of clouds (the inside of clouds)
proves theres life

run off the bus and they will just stay in me i love how rain fills the potholes
did it go or did something shade it?

thats the window into the sky(?)
proves theres life
