Here we stand at the end of paths taken
Guiding light inspiration, the slow decline
The crumbling foundation, the stations and now the cross
But we're still lost, we're still lost

Settling now once again
What was begun will meet it's end
Running now, time to hide
Go inside, it's time to hide

Here we stand at the end of paths taken
Guiding light inspiration, the slow decline
The crumbling foundation, the stations and now the
But we're still lost, we're still lost

Waiting now, dull roots twinning
Keeping watch for new roots shining

Here we stand at the end of paths taken
Guiding light inspiration, the slow decline
The crumbling foundation, the stations and now the
But we're still lost, we're still lost

There you stand at the edge of salvation
Guiding light inspiration, the slow decline
The crumbling foundation, the stations and now the
But we're still lost, yeah, we're still lost

But we're still lost, we're still lost
But we're still lost, yeah, we're still lost
But we're still lost, we're still lost
