Should've known there'd be danger
When I saw your face in the crowd
Now I'm trying to work past my anger
I should know better by now

I used to believe in the love songs
Took me so long to write down
Every word you say takes my breath away
But I should know better by now

Chorus:
I've know you're sorrow
But everybody 's pleased to hear me
I've known your sorrow
Since g-d makes the rain
I see tomorrow
And everybody tries againI see tomorrow
G-d makes the rain 2x

I used to believe in the spirits
Turned all the words into sound
But I was your walk on the wild side
I should know better by now

If you see me looking for something
Someone will never be found
When I look away
Turn your eyes astray
Cause I should know better by now

Chorus

I used to hold my fury
Keep it bottled tight
Doesn't lift the thoughts away
Sees each and every night

But if I put my faith in someone who was only trying to bring me down
I will stand, where I am standing now

Shouldn't know there'd be danger
When I saw ur face in the crowd
Every word you say takes my breath away
But I should know better by now

Chorus.
God makes the rain -repeated
