I talked to myself today.
Sat down and understood in a peculiar way that,
She looks so innocent but,
Oh I know better,
Do I know better.

Because I never thought that we could work this out,
Make it through the crowd.

I talked to myself today but,
Now I know better,
Do I know better,
Do I know better.

Ooh oh!
That's when she looked at me
I knew I couldn't let her be
Oh no, I wouldn't make it on my own
Oh oh, ready to walk away
'Cause I know all the games she plays,
It's alright,
It's alright...

I talked to myself today
Sat down and understood in a peculiar way that
She looks so innocent but
Now I know better
Do I know better

'Cause I never thought that you would turn my life around
Oohh

I talked to myself today but
Now I know better
Do I know better
Do I know better
Oohh ooh ooh no

Ooh oh!
That's when she looked at me

I knew I couldn't let her be
Oh no, I wouldn't make it on my own
Oh oh, ready to walk away
'Cause I know all the games she plays

It's alright,
It's alright...

Ooh oh!
That's when she looked at me
I knew I couldn't let her be
Oh no, I wouldn't make it on my own
Oh oh, ready to walk away
'Cause I know all the games she plays

It's alright,
It's alright...
