"Miss You"

I light a fire on this night
I still envision your face smile
It's hard to let it go when
In this crazy circumstance
I just want it all to end
It's hard to just let it go

And I know you see the way
I live my life you know I'll be just Fine but still I miss you so damn hard
Miss you so damn hard

And days seem shorter than they are
Nights seem colder no wonder
When I feel numb
I've got to let it go

And I fight through the night
In a dream I hear your voice in
My head in my head
There you are still smiling at me
Though I know you're not here

And I know I've got to let it go
