"Runaway"

All my senses are alert,
When I'm sneakin' out
If I only could revert
From this state of doubt
Every step I take is weighed
On every breath I contemplate
Cause it feels like I'm the bait
Too late to turn around

Run away, yeah, every single day I hide away
Guess I'll just keep running

All these voices go insane
Try to freak me out
And I can't recall my name
This shame, just shut your mouth

Run away, yeah, every single day I hide away
Guess I'll just keep running
Run away, yeah, every single day I hide away
And I'll just keep running

Got to work this out on my own

Run away, yeah, every single day I hide away
Guess I'll just keep running
Run away, yeah, every single day I hide away
Guess I'll just keep running
Just keep running
Just keep running
