"At Ease"

Visit "At Ease" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been woken up again
These dreams have no end
Still linger here
Rage strikes

And here they come again
Intruders of my restless soul
You will not frighten me
Cause I've finally learned to

See in me everything that I was always searching for
And nothing can erase it anymore
'cause I Â'm free today and flying far away
I'm stronger than before

You will never ever find me
Horrible blame I've been woken up
Again the dreams still won't end
I'm changing my view cause I

Don't want to live no more in disillusion
I want to stand at ease
