12 in the morning,
Breakfast
Yellow orange juice
And some wine
Later I'm going to float
Upwards in the sea
Later I'm going to float
Upwards in the sea

Following the dolphins
They allow me to see them tails
Following the dolphins
They allow me to see them tails
Following the dolphins
I have to plummet into a big depth
Following the dolphins
I have to found what evolve my head

Change my tiger skin for a neoprene
Suit and go back to the surface
Drawing a step cause is late for my dinner
Fishes and seaweed
The food comes from the whole nature
Dancing electrons making little points
Which makes a line
