I love you just as you are

You mean the world to me

And my love for you

My love is endlessly

And you stepped right into my life

And gave me love cherie

And your love will always be

Endlessly

Endlessly

Like the tide that meets the shore

Endlessly

Till the universe closes its door

You're the wealth of my life

My source of energy

And my love for you my love is endlessly

And my love for you my love is endlessly
