Wind of fate has pried us loose
Light of mercy hurts my eyes
Is it worth the things you lose?
Board the train and watch the sky

I sing myself to sleep at night
Sing myself to sleep

Another song about the rain
Coming down it burns through me
Another song about the rain

Got a line straight from my heart
Another time it went to you
Another place we were smart
Before the flood and time was through

I sing myself to sleep at night
I sing myself to sleep

Another song about the rain
Coming down it burns through me
Another song about the rain

Sorry, now, I never made you see
Sorry, now, sounds so far away
Will our child cry for me
When he hears the dragon's flame

Highway flares make red the streets
My fingers spin the dial again
But every station's on to me, yeah
Another song about the rain

(Another song about the rain)
Another song about the rain
(Another song about the rain)
Coming down first through me

(Another song about the rain)
Another song about the rain
(Another song about the rain)

Never rained so viciously

Another song about the rain

Another song about the rain

Another song about the rain
