Am Cigarette C and carrot juice F-G(sus4) And get yourself a Am new tattoo C for those sleeveless F days of G(sus4) June

I'm sitting on the Cafe Zinho's steps with a book I haven't started yet watching all the girls walk by

Could I take you F out I'll be yours without a Dm doubt C on that big G(sus4) dipper

And if the sound of this it frightens you we could play it real cool and act somewhat indifferent

And hey June why did you have to come, why did you have to come around so soon I wasn't ready for all this nature

The terrible green green grass, and violent blooms of flowered dresses and afternoons that make me sleepy

But we could wait awhile before we push that dull turnstile into the passage

The thousands they had tread and others sometimes fled before the turn came REPEAT SECTION 1 x2

And we could wait our lives before a chance arrives before the passage

From the top you can see Monterey or think about San Jose though I know it's not that pleasant

And hey Jim Kerouac brother of the famous Jack or so he likes to say "lucky bastard"

He's sitting on the cafe Xeno's steps with a girl I'm not over yet watching all the world go by

Boy you are looking bad Did I make you feel that sad
I'm honestly flattered

But if she asks me out I'll be hers without a doubt on that big dipper

Cigarettes and carrot juice and get yourself a new tattoo for those sleeveless days of June

I'm sitting on the cafe Xeno's steps I haven't got the courage yet, I haven't got the courage yet,

I haven't got the ending Am courage yet
