I hear a voice that fights the wind
The rain that keeps fallin'
And I feel a river rushin' in Between you and me

You keep lookin'
For somethin' that's not lost
I wish that somehow
I could get you across

Oh, won't you rest your worries
Darling one, sweetheart?
Oh, won't you rest your worries
Darling one, sweetheart, sweetheart?

When they told you the big parade
Had long since passed
I saw you waiting there
For the music to come back
Feelin' blue
'Cause there's so much to live up to
I wish that somehow
I could give it to you

Oh, won't you rest your worries
Darling one, sweetheart?
Oh, won't you rest your worries
Darling one, sweetheart, sweetheart?
Oh, oh, woe

Won't you rest your worries
Darling one, sweetheart?
Oh, won't you rest your worries
Darling one, sweetheart, sweetheart?
