It's not right, it's gotta change
But she's not the one to blame
They try to make it works, nothing seems to work at all In the end it doesn't matter they should break up once and for all

All her friends have tried to say
Tried to say it's just a phase
He doesn't give a shit 'cause he's chasing after girls
They belong to the same world

So there's no reason to try
Life's meant to be much fun
She'll never be the only one
And there's no reason to fight 'cause they are wasting their time
I wrote you this song so goodbye and so long

Time goes by and they break up
There's no chance, they will make up
'Cause when he's tired of chasing she'll be with another man
And it starts all over again

So there's no reason to try
Life's meant to be much fun
She'll never be the only one
And there's no reason to fight 'cause they are wasting
their time
I wrote you this song so goodbye and so long

So there's no reason to try
Life's meant to be much fun
He'll never be the only one
And there's no reason to fight 'cause they are wasting
their time
"I wrote this fuckin' song, for you and for your mom"
