I don't know what's happening

Six in the morning here I'm sitting on my bed
Figuring out those fuckin' problems in my head
The TV is on, but it's not distracting
My mind needs some peaceful time
But it's hard to keep my thoughts in line

What's going on
I don't know why it is so disturbing
Seems everything is going down
It makes me feel always sad inside and my thoughts upside down
Well, I see you around

In times like these,
There's nothing else to do,
You gotta wait
(Gotta wait)
Life plays some tricks on us,
It don't look fair, no not today

I don't know what's happening

What should I do
What can I say about
My life is getting worse, I wanna work things out Somebody has to be the one, to choose and to decide
But there will always be somebody at your side

In times like these, there's nothing else to do, you gotta wait
Life plays some tricks on us,
It don't look fair, no not today
(Not today)
Nobody said that it was easy, you can't run away
Keep going on and keep yourself strong, It will fade away

I don't know what's happening

I don't know what's happening

I don't know what's wrong with me
I don't know what's happening

I don't know why...
