[G1] HELLO?!

[G2] Whaup girl.

[G1] Ain't nothin - this n* in here stressin talkin that old off the wall back to Africa s again

[G2] What, that God Body s?

[G1] Yeah, that dumb s

I'm tryin to get up OUTTA here

[G2] I hear that. but yo, you know the spot is pumpin tonight

[G1] Word f'real where?

[G2] You know, where the real n*z is poppin the Cristal

NOT THAT WHITE STUFF!

[G1] Ha hah! Word where the real n*z at?

[JoJo Hailey]

Listen. to reason

Pretty baby baby listen.

[Nas]

A young wild beautiful love child
You like them thug style link rockin, then mink coppin
Hit you on the sink a hundred dollar drink poppin
The head'll make you take him shoppin, a foul doctrine

Reminiscent of my first time up in a chick You was innocent, but now you rent-a-dick, wear the tightest s
Chanel lookin real, airbrushed nails
Hit the gym, hit the scales, heaven-sent but negligent (so fine.)

To see a prophecy, your ebony tone is lockin me
The way you moan make me daydream of you on top of me
Wishin I could be the one man; but you juggle way too many Willies all in one hand

You want to run up in clubs, gettin' rubbed on N*z pull your hair, shake your fat rear
Get your f on - followin' week, you back there
But what you stuck on, weed, clowns and cars

Puffin with some lil' n*, husband not knowin' she's out
Could you believe Eve, Mother Earth of the seas
N*z thirst you, you just let em hurt you and leave
What up mah, frontin' like you naive

Pusherman's whip, callin police when you flip Can't understand it, yo it should be a throne for us
But for now that's a whole different zone from us, word!

[Chorus]

Diamonds all shinin', lookin' all fine
Pretty little face, get a little high
Young girl stugglin', tryin' to survive
Mother of the Earth, she made you and I Just tired of playin the same ol' games
Messin' with my mind, emotional thangs
And there goes. a black girl. lost

[Nas]

Like Isis, she got you heartbroke and felt lifeless Grow up girl instead you want revenge so now you act
the nicest
to who'sever gettin' down and trifless
To get his mind all you do is give him somethin' priceless

'Cause in time he'll realize the thighs is all he needs More than weed, then you hit him off with lies and greed (deceit, yeah)
There you go again, startin' wars, makin' me more yours
Seem to get a kick out of keepin' me on all fours

Face glistenin', I'm addicted to you Original, Wisdom Body got me picturin' you Igloos of ice trickin' on you, you never listen to this n* spendin' Franklins on tennis anklets

Must've had a bad deal in the past though Can't even keep it real with a n* with cash flow Say men are all the same, what we need to do is break this chain
You got a job part-time and school's your night thing

With dreams to settle down, it ain't far from now
You gettin' interviewed, but your boss is into gettin screwed
Typical day that the black girl sees

Comin' home wantin' more from a college degree

[Chorus]

[Nas]

Where are you focused, on legit n*z and where the coke is

Nice and Thug Life n*z, yo you seem hopeless Your value - too much to be measured, I wonder how you
could ever be played, your p* worth gold amountin'
to

more than the world, but not knowin' nothin' about you You leavin' the crib, takin' all your kids out to drop them off, lettin' some n* knock you off
So hot and soft, that's the same thing that got you lost (you should be ashamed)

Growin' up seein' it, it should remind you, you bein lied
to
Everything that move be inside you
Sacred as you are, left with these wannabes to guide
you
I watched you, hard to knock you, I tried not to

They spot you out dancin' topless in your drawers
Damn look, there goes a black girl lost

[JoJo Hailey]

You should be ashamed of yourself
The way you carry yourself
The way you hang out all night long Doin' silly things that is wrong
Black girl. fades out
