She was the modern Isis, honey dog, she was priceless Perfect definition what a wife is, I like this Showed me how excitin' life is, I used to hang around dudes
That used ice pics to shiest this, put you on their heistliest

How we met it must have been fate
First date, crushed grapes, we ate lobster and steak She kept askin' questions, how the cash made? How my rent's paid?
How many guns I sprayed and huns I laid?

She said she want to have a family, raise kids someday Like out in Beverly Hills, she wanna live one day
I can get with that, I drop you off home I called, you hit me back, I wanna dig that, did I? I did that

Put it way up where her ribs at, her future kids at You held out for two weeks, longer than these hoodrats
You precious, more precious than lost treasure Matter of fact I'm kinda hopin' we can stay together, word

I see you dressed up in white face covered in veil
Do I hear weddin' bells?
My dogs throwin' rice, and it's the day your father give you away

To a real man, I gently put the ring on your hand

Do we vow to stay faithful? Do more than try to Now look me in my eyes and say, "I do" Drivin' off in the Rolls Royce, 'Just Married' on the plates
We can spend our honeymoon in the States

You can throw your friend a bouquet Somethin' in the back of my head say for us two Maybe 'cuz I love you, hug you, squeeze you, touch you, tease you
As long as we are together, it's Heaven for me to please you

Won't stop until I tell you to beautiful Deeper and harder, love layin' new with you Runnin' my fingers thru your hair, it's not days that go by While I'm with you, that I won't even care

She been with young dudes, old guys, Hindus Papas, Colombians who cut pies, but none of them can touch Nas
Thug ones for those soft the baby shit
She been with hoodlums and those who act crazy chips

Until one day she decided to flip it Was nothin' I can do about it, like she the boss and shit Started talkin' this divorcin' shit
I gave her my half rib, half my crib, half my cake

Half my car, half my kid, can't get that Tried to swing on a God, had to dip that Yo, pushed her on the bed, lifted her leg Had to rip that, all she wanted was rough sex with her slick ass

Had to sit back smoke a blunt and just look With her fine ass body and a damn good cook For some reason, yo, she had me stuck and I had her in my web too
You my queen, God bless you
