When it's cold outside I like to sleep with a blanket on my ass
I don't want to hear the wind blow ... I don't want my face to chap but way up here in the Northwest are some guys who got no choice,
they got to ride through blizzards when there's trouble in the forest.
And you can hear them singin ... Let's lift our hearts up let's let our hair down.. Rangers At Midnight cleaning out the town ... Rangers
At Midnight cleaning out the town
If a big brown bear should run away ... they got to find him and cut him down. if a man in a velvet suit is seen they got to run him out of town. When the FBI are in trouble up North well, they know just who to call... a mounted guy at 4'5" still looks mighty tall and you can hear them singin. Let's lift our hearts up let's let our hair down...
Rangers At Midnight cleaning out the town...
Rangers At Midnight cleaning out the town...

"Well we're the best darn guys that ever rode the North
I like to ride in the snow with my rifle and my horse Well, I'm a mouny now and I'm only 21 but I'm the King of the North and I'm really having fun."

Scene II "Night Patrol"

The cold northwestern wind, blows ice against my cheek while riding night patrol ... I think of you You left me for the last time ... you've shut yourself from me ... but now I've made it so I can't get back to you
I'm a mounted man for life
So don't you try to write me, or call me on the phone I've finally found a place where I can hide from you

I'm a mounted man for life

Scene III "Let's Lift Our Hearts Up" (Finale)

Let's lift our hearts up Let's let our hair down --

Rangers At Midnight cleaning out the town...
Rangers At Midnight cleaning out the town...
Rangers At Midnight and they're alright.
