Man on a rooftop talks to me
He said, "Does anybody down there see what I see? Fill your glasses with the magic that's around you, love is everywhere. Love is everywhere.
I stood there all night long,
I stood there all night long, oh yeah, talking to Napoleon Man on a rooftop got taken away and the world gets stranger day by day. So fill your glasses with the magic that surrounds you, love is everywhere. Love is everywhere.
I stood there all night long,
I stood there all night long, oh yeah, talking to Napoleon
