Well I'm than lightning hopkins
I'm a badass rolling stone
Remeber them words
And spell them right
On the head of my tombstone
Gonna be long gone
Ain't carrying on
There's one last thing that I gotta say
Come on baby let's go
Oh yeah

Write my will in lines of cocaine
Baptize myself in whiskey
Take every pill that'll fit in my mouth
And see where that'll get me
It's time I finally lived up to
The bad shit that's been said
So hey you whores here's my bread
Stand in line and give me head

It's good night for a heart attack
I'm going to a drug fight
And I ain't coming back
So help me baby, get on with the show
One last live before I leave
And I hate to see me go

Weed and jack for my last meal
With xanax wrapped in bacon
And y'all can kick me when I'm dead
To prove that I'm not faking
It's so hard to repent
With your foot right thru the floor
So to save some time and my soul
Brind a preist right to the Bar

It's good night for a heart attack
I'm going to a drug fight

And I ain't coming back
So help me baby, get on with the show
One last live before I leave
And I hate to see me go

So raise your glass
Baby here's to me
I'll be the deadest man
That'll ever be
And if you got something to help get me gone
Than baby bring it on

It's good night for a heart attack
I'm going to a drug fight
And I ain't coming back
So help me baby, get on with the show
One last live before I leave
And I hate to see me go

It's good night for a heart attack
I'm going to a drug fight
And I ain't coming back
So help me baby, get on with the show
One last live before I leave
And I hate to see me go
