[mark t & sonny]

Holdin' hands, strollin' through the park (oooohhh)
Sweet memories (yeahhh)
Are torn apart (ooohh)
I made a promise I could not keep (I could not keep)
I played around, oh girl, I made you weep

[chorus- mark t & sonny]

I had a choice, and I chose wrong
I made a promise, girl, to leave it alone
You gave me trust, I threw it away
Baby, please

Sonny, son, son
Yeah

How roses, love notes, and apologies does it take?
How many more lonely nights do I stay awake?
Reminisclin' of the times you would do whatever Sneak out your window so that we can be together
And when your daddy said he would kill your boyfriend
Not even he could separate us back then I wish these thoughts would've been going through my mind
When I broke this promise and I made you cry
Forgive me, I wish it was a dream, that I might awake
To your lovin' arms around me
I guess I gave in to man's deepest weakness
I'm at your mercy begging for forgiveness
I had a choice and I chose wrong
Now I'm trying to make it better writing you this song
I love you more than anything up in this world
Never wanna lose you, forgive me, girl, uh

[chorus]

I sat back, took my time, wrote these rhymes
Words I never express, the type of things that I'm sayin'

Right out the top of the head, I ain't lyin'
Even cried when I wrote it, and every time I read it Tear it up and throw it Think of back to the days when you didn't know what life was
'cause at the same time I gave it to ya, I took it from ya
And now I understand why you can't look me in my eyes there again
Sittin' underneath the candle light tryin' to 'rize the same lines
Feel it even more when the paper tore from writin' so hard
All hands down with my heart on the floor
'cause I knew I fucked up, comin' out a broken man Please, lord, control my hand and have your angels bless these words >from a man coming from a broken world
And every time I stopped, your face I saw, your voice I heard
Visions of your tears hauntin' my dreams
Forgive me

[chorus]

[mark t & sonny]
'cause girl, you know that I wanna love you forever more
Forever and ever, never, n-n-never leave me, baby
I wanna have you right by my side
'cause you are my lady
Please don't leave me, baby, baby

[chorus to end]
I got to have you by my side
I made a promise, girl
I wanna do you right
Oh yeahhhh
Lady, lady
