(chorus: Angelina)

Every time I hear this song... playin on my radio
It just reminds me of... how much I love you so
Every time I think of you... I just wanna call you boy
To let you know that I will always be there for you

What's goin on baby girl
It's been a long long time that I... I told you what I'm feelin inside
You know it seems to be that all I think about is you
Ruby red lips to the way you move your hips
I'm tryin to be the perfect man
Always gettin lost in love
Down for yours on this AZ side
I'm cruisin in my Limited and you always on my mind
It's even better when you right there by my side
I'm analyzing what you say and what you do
And everybody's jealous 'cause I'd rather be wit you
But that's a'ight, it may be scandalous too
Reservations at the Marriot a suite for two
Time flies, we overlook the city lights
From the moutaintop you be pressin that rewind Slow jams, long stems, tell me what you wanna have
I wanna be the one to give you everything

(chorus: Angelina)

Every time I hear this song... playin on my radio
It just reminds me of... it just reminds me of ..how much
I love you so
Every time I think of you... I just wanna call you boy
To let you know that I will always be there for you

(Hey girl)

Yo from the view I been lookin at lookn' at you clown other guys
With they ties on creepin thru the crowd
Thinkin they can while you just loungin, thinkin of me
In the Limelight to get yo life line to changin somethin'
And I know that most start just like the ones before 'em

So ignore 'em and a playa like me'll thank you for it For the thought of you lovn' alone is enough to have the hardest players heart torn, every second your gone
And that's alright to let your ice shine
Brown eyes, light skin, big lips with Latin vibe Man I knew why she was quick to pass by 'cause I kept on lookin and I wondered to myself if I had been mistaken
For a playa, or a heartbreaker who laid with a few numbers too many for you But who you gonna listen to... a liar, who's tryin to take your heart
Or one who had it from the start and never disregarded it girl?

(Angelina)

Hey Mr DJ could you play my favorite song (play my song)
'cause everytime (everytime you do) you do... I'm thinkin of my boo Please Mr DJ could you play it one more time (you are my everything)
And dedicate it to my baby baby baby tonight

Yo I think it's kinda cool
Every time you walkin by you lookin so good
Always catchin my eyes
Wonder if you'd be down like I'm down with you?
Didn't your girl tell you I wanted hook-ups wit you?
Sometimes I'm thinkin "When you're loungin at home
Are you thinkin of me when they're playin your favorite
song?"
We both hesitate to always pick up the phone
Let it ring, hang it up, say "You probly ain't home"
You make me feel different everytime I'm 'round you
Ain't no girl that can make me feel the way you do
So let's make this happen... let's hookup for the date
We'll both gear up and pick you up at eight
You're drivin me crazy and I don't know why
I couldn't approach you with this feelin that I'm feeling inside
Now it's summertime rollin by my side
Shoulda known from the get you were down to ride yeah

(Angelina)

Everybody... who's got somebody
Who makes you feel so good inside
To everybody... who's got somebody
Show your love... dedicate this song to them

(chorus: Angelina)

Every time I hear this song... playin on my radio
It just reminds me of... how much I love you so
Every time I think of you... I just wanna call you boy
To let you know that I will always be there for you
