big time, big time r-rush

i tried playing by the rule books i tried 25 new looks i tried everything and nothing changed hey hey hey i'm tired of waiting on the sidelines i'm tired of watching time fly by i need a boost cos my heart is dead ey ey ey
i'm not lonely
i'm just holding out, out for something real

i wanna feel that big time rush (oh whoa) the kind of love that makes a grown man blush (oh whoa)
i need to feel that rush today i need it running through my veins give me that big time rush i want a kiss i'm not faking i want a smile i'm not chasing i want a girl that says she's all mine mine mine mine i'm tired of waiting on phone calls i'm tired of staring at these walls i need to be looking in her eyes hypnotized

i'm not lonely

whoa)
i need to feel that rush today
so give me that big time rush hey make it faster than a speeding train and take me higher than the stars in spain until i feel it i won't be a believer, liever give me that big big time rush

i wanna feel that big time rush (oh whoa)
whoa)
i need to feel that rush today

big time rush (oh whoa)
whoa)
i need to feel that rush today
