Oh,
Da da da da dum, da da da, da da da da dum

I can't believe I'm running into you Haven't seen you since the days of high school
You were the one who always got away
Man, this must be my lucky day
Girl you're lookin' as fine as ever
How I wish that we could be together
So here's what I'm gonna do
I'ma have to say goodbye to you, So

Go
I'm not beggin' you to stay
Cuz I got this funny feelin' I'll be seein' you someday
That's right go
I'm tellin' you to walk away
Cuz I know somewhere down the line I'll be seein' you babe

(Now you're)
You're lookin' at me funny, baby I ain't messin'
Call your daddy, let me ask him for his blessin'
Cuz next time we meet we'll be on different grounds
We'll need a church, dress, tux, and some wedding vows
Singin' "Here comes the bride (so beautiful), All dressed in white"

Now
Go
I'm not beggin' you to stay
Cuz I got this funny feelin' I'll be seein' you someday
I'm tellin' you to walk away
Cuz I know somewhere down the line I'll be, I'll be seein' you babe

I know this might seem crazy
Leavin' you babe
When there's so much more to say
But when the heavens decide

To give us a try
We'll be startin' a family, oh

I'm thinkin' two babies,
Josh and Kailey,
And get a house upon the bay.
We'll be best of friends
Til the end
Ooh, and baby I'ma promise I'ma see you again, So

Go
I'm not beggin' you to stay ( I'm not lady)
Cuz I got this funny feelin' I'll be seein' you someday
I'm tellin' you to walk away( I'm tellin' you to walk away)
Cuz I know somewhere down the line
(Somewhere, somewhere I'll be seein you babe)

Go
(I can't believe it, I I can't believe it)
So go, go, go
(I can't believe it, I I can't believe it)
When I find you 'gain I'ma never let you go
(I can't believe it, I I can't believe it)
I can't believe it
