I see you with him
It doesn't make sense
There's nothing nothing nothing
No spark in your eyes
No passion or pride
There's nothing nothing nothing

How could somebody so beautiful be so sad?
What a shame
Can you tell me what does he do to you to feel like that?

~Cause I would never
Never, no no no
No, I would never Never

No, I'm not a psychic but you can't deny it
That you deserve better
And I'm not a genius but I know you feel it
That you deserve better
I know there's a reason
Why my heart is beating
When we are together
You don't gotta say it
Just know that I'm waiting for you

It tears me apart
To know that your heart
Gets nothing nothing nothing
(It gets nothing, no)
No reason to dream
No sense of belief
There's nothing nothing nothing

Tell me how could somebody so beautiful be so sad?
Can you tell me what does he do to you to feel like that Like that

~Cause I would never
Never, no no
No, I would never

Never

No, I'm not a psychic but you can't deny it
That you deserve better
You deserve better
And I'm not a genius but I know you feel it
That you deserve better
I know there's a reason
Why my heart is beating
When we are together
You don't gotta say it
Just know that I'm waiting for you

You look at me with love in your eyes
You look through me

You can't walk away
That's not a mistake
There's something something something
It's only a sin if you stay with him, my love
My love

No, I'm not a psychic but you can't deny it
That you deserve better
And I'm not a genius but I know you feel it
That you deserve better
When we are together
You don't gotta say it

How could somebody so beautiful be so sad?
