Illusions and monsters waiting by my side
Nothing is changed and it makes me feeling fine
But there's a void... I really need something new

Closed in a dream for too much time
I don't wanna wake up in this life
Crouched in an angle... I listen you

And you know it's happened time ago
And you've called me loser
And you know I always lose

And you know it's happened time ago
And you've called me loser
And you know I always lose

Hurricanes and mad brains seem to feel
My heart screaming and it seems unreal
Reality doesn't take away from here

You know life threw me down time ago
Maybe tomorrow I'll rise above
But for now I wanna rest with my own

And you know it's happened time ago
And you've called me loser
And you know I always lose

And you know it's happened time ago
And you've called me loser
And you know I always lose

And you know it's happened time ago
And you've called me loser
And you know I always lose

And you know it's happened time ago
And you've called me loser
And you know I always lose

And I know It's happened time ago
And I'm still a loser

'Cause I know
There's nothing new...

And I know It's happened time ago
And I'm still a loser
'Cause I know
There's nothing new...

... nothing except you...
