Que se quede el infinito sin estrellas
Let the universe be without stars O que pierda el ancho mar su inmensidad or let the big sea loses its immensity Pero el negro de tus ojos que no muera but the black of your eyes, let it not die Y el canela de tu piel se quede igual and the cinnamon (color) of your skin remain the same

Si perdiera el arco iris su belleza may the rainbow loose its beauty Y las flores su perfume y su color and (may loose) the flowers its perfume and color No seria tan inmensa mi tristeza Wouldnt be my sorrow as immense

Como aquella de quedarme sin tu amor as that (the sorrow) of loosing your love

Me importas tãº y tãº y tãº
I care about you and you and you Y solamente tãº y tãº y tãº and only about you and you and you
Me importas tãº y tãº y tãº
I care about you and you and you
Y nadie mas que tãº and nobody else but you

Ojos negros, piel canela black eyes, cinnamon skin que me llegan a desesperar that make me despair
