Nat King Cole
"The Blues Don't Care"

The blues don't care, who's got 'em
The blues don't care, who cries
And the nights don't care who's lonely
Or whose tears are in whose eyes

When someones heart is broken
The blues are not to blame
'Cause the blues don't care who's got 'em
So they just added my name

And the nights don't care who's lonely
Or whose tears are in whose eyes

When someones heart is broken
The blues are not to blame
'Cause the blues don't care who's got 'em
So they just added my name
