I sing this song from the sky no matter if it's heaven or hell

I know I love that girl but it wouldn't work that well
I'd be sitting there all alone counting day after day
I knew she wouldn't come home
It it just that way

'Cos long distance relationships will kill you

Long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance
Long distance
Long distance

One night I woke with a dream and knew it was the end
You dint let me cry baby or even let me bend
And I know and I know and I know

'Cos long distance relationships will kill you

Long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance
Long distance
Long distance

I didn't want to let you go but baby it was wrong and right
I didn't won't to make you cry or maybe mess up your life
I just wanted to hold you on my arms it was alright
But I knew there'd be no chance

Because long distance relationships will kill you
Because long distance relationships will kill you
Because long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance
Long distance
Long distance

Long distnace relationships will kill you

Long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance relationships will kill you
Long distance relationships
Long distance relationships
Long distance
Long distance
Ah ah ah oh oh
Long distance
Long distance
La la long
La la long
Long distance
La la long
Long distance
Long distance relationships will kill you ohh ehh err
Ou we ou we err
Ba doo wabadoo waaay
