Last night I was alone
You were with him
I know I was at home
I hear your voice in my head Then I hear his too and wish I was dead

die leave me hear to die

I think about you all the time
I was yours and you were mine I think how things used to be Everythings changed totally When hes there u know im not Leave me hear to die and rot

Die leave me hear to die

Everything comes to an end
And now your nothing but a friend Forgotten days in the dark all over now leave your mark

if things were still the same would we need to play this game life is gone im insane love is lost now im down

Everything comes to an end
And now your nothing but a friend
