I remember, it seems like it was yesterday
You held me in your arms and made me feel so safe
I always knew that life was never simple
You gotta let me go, just a little

(Daddy don't) So daddy, don't you worry
(I'll take my time) I'm not in a hurry
I'm not your little baby no more
He treats me like a lady and so much more

When he came into my life
Instantly I knew everything was alright
And I know now that you don't wanna see me cry
Cause I'm so dizzy, drunk on love
Is gonna last forever,
Cause all of the above is saying

A one minute, a one minute romance
Cause I'm in it, I'm in it for the long run
Time is moving fast, a minute to last
That this ain't gonna be another minute romance

A one minute, a one minute romance
Is just beginning, we're gonna go the distance
Time is running fast, a minute to last
That this ain't gonna be another minute romance

Ain't it funny, how time just keeps on rushing by
You told me I was still the apple of your eye
You always said that I should be more careful
You gotta let me go, just a little

(Daddy don't) But daddy, don't you worry
(I'll take my time) I'm not in a hurry
I'm not your little baby no more
He treats me like a lady and so much more

When he came into my life
Instantly I knew everything was alright
And I know now that, that you don't wanna see me cry
But I'm so dizzy, drunk on love

Is gonna last forever,
Cause all of the above is saying

A one minute, a one minute romance
Cause I'm in it, I'm in it for the long run
Time is moving fast, a minute to last
That this ain't gonna be another minute romance

Is just beginning, yeah yeah
Don't you know this ain't a

A one minute, a one minute romance
Cause I'm in it, I'm in it for the long run
Time is moving fast, a minute to last
That this ain't gonna be another minute romance
