Don't try to deny
My fate is your agony
So what if my appearance
Might grace on Vogue magazine?
Oh baby, give it up
don't try to control me
I bet you've had enough of fearing my destiny

Stop thinking of you
Start thinking of me
Can't give you my love unconditionally
oh 'Cause it's all or nothing, all or nothing
I can't be around you
If you ain't got what I need
So make up your mind
Oh you better believe, ooh
That it's all nothing
All or nothing

So why criticize my lifestyle luxury?
It's so clear your interference is a waste of energy, oh yeah
Oh baby give it up
don't try to control me
I bet you've had enough of this stupidity

Stop thinking of you
Start thinking of me
Can't give you my love unconditionally
Oh 'cause it's all or nothing, all or nothing
I can't be around you
If you ain't got what I need
So make up your mind
Oh you better believe, ooh
That it's all nothing
All or nothing

Why (should I let you take) should you take the best of me?

Ooh baby baby baby
You gotta take me as I am
Ooh why (won't you listen) to what I have got to say?
Oh baby baby baby
This is who I am

Stop thinking of you
Start thinking of me
Can't give you my love unconditionally
Oh 'cause it's all or nothing, all or nothing
So make up your mind
I said you better believe, ooh no
That it's all nothing
