Whoohoo
Whoo

There comes a time in your life
When you gotta stand up
Reach for the sky, don't lose drive
Cause you can't give up, no

There'll be some fakers
There'll be haters
Oh you see
When it gets hard just remember
You are the one they see
Hey

You're a burning star
You give what you are
Rising through the dark
The brightest of all
Just keep on shining
Keep on rising
Remember you are a burning star

Whoohoo
Whoo

Yes, you've got the fire
The strength to float higher
Higher and higher
You've got all it takes
You hold on to faith
You are the stronger

There'll be some fakers
There'll be haters
Oh you see
When it gets hard just remember
You are what they wanna be

You're a burning star
You give what you are

Rising through the dark
The brightest of all
Just keep on shining
Keep on rising
Remember you are a burning star

You're a burning star
You give what you are
Rising through the dark
The brightest of all
Just keep on shining
Keep on rising

You're a star, you're a star, you're a star, you're a star

Come on
Don't let them deny ya
Cause they are all liars
You are a star
Keep reaching higher

Don't let them hold ya
They don't even know ya
They just wanna break you down
Till you give up

Make no misleaders into believers
Follow your dreams
The world is your kingdom
I said no, it's yours
Go

You're a burning star
Keep on rising

You're a burning star
Keep on rising
