I bet your name is Johnny
You're looking over, looking sweet like honey
With all these eyes on you
I bet there's nothing that you cannot do

If you're open for business tonight
Come on over, the man of my life
Seduce me like a lion, but don't forget that I am

The cat that got the cream
I don't need to try
Hard to make you my
Dessert
You know just what that means
Stroke me and you'll find
I always get what I
Deserve
The cat that got the cream
Ooh-ooh ohh, etc.

So Mr. Mystery
Still there are secrets that you cannot keep
It's sneaking up on you
You can't deny it, I am coming through

Now I'm open for business tonight
Will I cuddle or cut like a knife
Seduce me like a lion, but don't forget what I am

The cat that got the cream
I don't need to try
Hard to make you my
Dessert
You know just what that means
Stroke me and you'll find
I always get what I
Deserve
Like the cat that got the cream

Even if I had nine lives
I say you only live twice tomorrow never dies
So come on and let the lightning strike
Take it down, take it down, take it da-da-da etc.

The cat that got the cream
I don't need to try
Hard to make you my
Dessert
You know just what that means
I always get what I
Deserve
The cat that got the cream

I don't need to try
Hard to make you my
Dessert
You know just what that means
Deserve

Ooh-ooh oohh, etc
