So many nights I agonized
So low in self esteem
And everything seemed darker than Before the light was seen
I've lost the hurt inside
I found a better way
I'm fragile but not broken to start my life again

So hear me, I'm calling out to you now
You are the answer to my prayers
So take me, before this night is over
Fragile not broken, I'll be there

And life is oh so dangerous
So many times we fall
But this time love was meant for us
Gave meaning to it all
I'll hold my head up high
Be strong be dignified
I'm brave enough to try again
I've nothing left to hide

So hear me, I'm calling out to you now
You are the answer to my prayers
So take me, before this night is over
Fragile not broken, I'll be there

Who'll be in your arms tonight?

Hear me, I'm calling out to you now
You are the answer to my prayers
So take me, before this night is over
Fragile not broken, I'll be there
Fragile not broken, I'll be there
