With every heartache we've traveled so far
Every dark night has a day
For every tear's sake we follow a star
To the shelter of our love

Loneliness fades and happiness invades me
With you in my life, you're the way to my serenity
So undaunted you and I have mended
Our seams and plights
No situation's gonna steer us away
From our eternity

With every heartache we've traveled so far
Every dark night has a day
For every tear's sake we follow a star
To the shelter of our love

In a black room, you kissed my aging wound
Then I saw without sight the true meaning
Of what real love can do
And when you're with me,
I'm never feeling empty
I'm filled with your light I'm satisfied
I never cease to be suprised with joy for you

With every heartache we've traveled so far
Every dark night has a day
For every tear's sake we follow a star
To the shelter of our love

Finding peace in the shelter of our love
Every sweet in the shelter of our love
An oasis in the dessert
It's the shade over the sand
Give me peace
Give me shelter
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Shelter

With every heartache we've traveled so far
Every dark night has a day

For every tear's sake we follow a star
To the shelter of our love
