(written by h. beatty, e. holland, r. david, b. holland)

Well, well, well, well, well

You're not the image of

The man that's of my dreams

We don't see eye to eye

But you got me riding high

We're incompatible astrologically

All of the signs they do agree

That it's the nature of opposites

It must be in our chemistry

(refrain)

(opposites attract) yeah

(something just keeps me coming back)

(opposites attract)

Something about you, baby

(this feeling keeps me coming back)

Ooh, yeah, yeah

I say it looks like sunshine

You say it looks like rain

You've got your stubborn ways, yes, you do

And you know I'll never change

In a thousand ways we disagree
But the sweet vibrations from your touch
It's the magic of the chemistry
That makes me want it
Twice as much
(refrain)
(opposites attract) oh, keep coming
(something just keeps me coming back)
Keep coming back, keep coming back, ooh
(opposites attract) oh, keep coming
(this feeling keeps me coming back)
Hey, yeah, yeah, woh, woh, woh, woh
Hoo, hoo, hoo, woo, woo
Woo, woo, woo, woo, woo, woo
Ahh--
(opposites attract) yeah, yeah
(keeps me coming back)
Something about you, baby
(opposites attract) woo, woo, woo
(this feeling keeps me coming back)
(opposites attract)
Something about you, baby
(this feeling keeps me coming back)...
