Doo, doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
Oh, yeah
Doo, doo, doo, doo
Doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
Mm, hmm

Who's gonna take the blame tomorrow
If we break up tonight?
If we break up
Who's gonna stop this stupid war?

That nobody's gonna win
The jury's still out on us
Split decision, split in two
By the things that came between us

So, unimportant now
All of those fights
Why do we always hurt the ones
We care the most about?

The jury's still out on us
Split decision, split in two
By the things that happened
And the dreams that came apart

Do you still want me in your life
I need to know so tell me?
Can we still make it in this life
Or is it too late for us?

How long is time about to wait?
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Hoo

Who's gonna say they're sorry first
And put this hurt away?
The jury's still out on us
Split decision, split in

It's not so easy putting back the pieces
Of a broken heart

Getting back where we started
Oh, no, oh, no

It's not so easy picking up the pieces
Of a broken heart
And get it back
(Get it back)

Get it back where we started
(Where we started)
Oh, oh, oh, no but if we hold on
We
(But if we hold on, we can try to make it)

Can try to make it and get it back
(Maybe mend this heart)
Where we started
(Get it back where we started)

Oh, oh, oh it's not so easy
(It's not so easy)
Picking up the iddy bitty pieces
(Picking up the pieces)
(Of a broken heart)

Get it back
(Get it back where we started)
Get it back where we started
But if we hold on
(If we hold on)

We're gonna make it
(We can try to make it)
(Maybe mend this heart)
Get it back where we started
