Lay your head down on the pillow,
please rest your eyes,
ill sing a song of morning glory-where everything is alright.

when you wake I will not be here,
won't you be kind..
just one word I'll be at your side im not hard to find.

dream on dream on-
dream on my friend,
don't shed a tear ill be right here-
dream on dream on.

everything will be alright,
more days will come..
don't fear what you do not know, what's to come is done.

ill hold you until the dawn breaks-count the tears you've cried, ill scream out loud "where is justice?"
"no justice," the world tries

dream on dream on-
dream on my friend,
dream on dream on.

dream on dream on-
dream on my friend,
dream on dream on.
