It's a long wait at the gate
Just to glimpse your fate
Just to see whether it all works out
It's a long road, a heavy load
You gotta really want to go
And just let the others walk around
You now

Up and down again
But this time it's different
It took some waiting to straighten
Out the bend
In and out of luck
Yeah at times it was difficult
I got a new life baby, It takes some getting used to but...

[Chorus:]

No sign of any rain
My skies are clear today
I keep bracing for that hit
But there's not sign of it

No obstacles in sight
My skies are clear tonight (My skies are full of light)
I keep thinking I might see that cloud arrive
Oh but there's no sign of it
No sign of it

And as I look around, it's all new ground
The leaves on the trees touch down
But I'm above weightless as a dream
It's been a long road, a heavy load
I just simply had to go
Had to get here hard as it's been

In and out of luck
Yeah at time it was difficult
I got a new life baby, it takes some getting Used to but...

[Repeat Chorus]
