"To Find My Strength"

Sometimes my heart gets weak
Sometimes my soul feels the edge of the night
Sometimes my will, my foolish pride
Carries me far, far away from Your side

And when I lose my way
I know

I look to You to find my strength
Carry me to the end of my days
Steady hand to lead me through
Arms of faith to bring me back to You

I will keep my eyes on love
Set my heart on things above
When my soul is so afraid
I look to You to find my strength, ooh yeah

Sometimes my hope, it slips away
Sometimes my dreams come crashing down
Sometimes my life, this crazy life
Has a heart, has a heart of its own

And when I lose my way
You know

I look to You to find my strength
Carry me to the end of my days
Steady hand to lead me through
Arms of faith to bring me back to You

I will keep my eyes on love
Set my heart on things above
When my soul is so afraid
Look to You to find my strength

When the tears keep pouring down
And my lips can't make a sound
I know You hear my prayer
And Your strength is always there

I look to You to find my strength

Carry me to the end of my days
Steady hand to lead me through
Arms of faith to bring me back to You

I will keep my eyes on love
Set my heart on things above
When my soul is so afraid
Look to You to find

I will keep my eyes on love
Set my heart on things above
When my soul is so afraid
Look to You to find, to find my strength
My strength

And when I lose my way
I know
