Your eyes, they send me to Eternity
Your heart may cast me to Hell
To Hell, I'm bound
But lately, it's your love
That's condemnation enough

Identify
Please identify
If it's me you want
Standing by your side
Identify
These tears of mine
Am I lonely or am I just alive?

I let time decide who and what
Will stand this test of love
Your hands were speaking, no?
I felt the movement go
The ice was breaking, so
I wonder why did I

Identify
With you, my life?
To leave me empty
And see if I'd survive?

For every questioned hour
For every second devoured
You let me wander you
Into a myth that I live

Identify
Please identify
If it's me you want
Standing by your side
Identify
These tears of mine
Am I lonely or am I just alive?

Am I lonely or am I just alive?
