She took a walk on a Saturday
And all of the people were gone
The building were down and all the birds had flown away
But she just kept singing her song
Lazy days
Just time and space
Isn't it wonderful !

Impossible
To believe she's the only one
And isn't it incredible
In the blink of a eye it was done
She's the girl who fell out with the sun
And got stuck on the moon

She started digging for sunshine
And wound up with dirt in her nails
Building her house on the edge of divine
No wonder she never fails
The pain is gone
But there's no way home
Time and space
There's a million ways
To feel beautiful !

Impossible
To believe she's the only one
And isn't it incredible
In the blink of a eye it was done
She's the girl who fell out with the sun
And got stuck on the moon

Nothing to prove
When all that you know has been taken away
Put your feet up
Turn your problems down
Take every day as it's coming around

There's a million ways to feel
Beautiful

Impossible
To believe she's the only one
And isn't it incredible
She's the girl who fell out with the sun
Impossible
In the blink of a eye it was done
She's the girl who fell out with the sun
And got stuck on the moon.
