From hand to hand you bought and sold blood is the shield against the weather became a stone for fear of being melted trouble from the day we came together

When you recover, from yesterdays low tue slave to traction of pleasure i collect the embers as i watch you grow you left along the way we came together

As you breathe as you breathe it to life you will lead, you will lead as you stray as you star far from home i will believe i will believe

Flames of love immerse you cradle and coerce you shadows over on the place you play names of love remind along the way seems shallowed by the way we came together

My heart carries on, umm, but my head knows better troubled by the way we came together

As you breathe, as you breathe it to life
as you stray as you stary far from home

'Cos you are here today, and gone tomorrow basking in the fields of never never you wanted today, oh but i wanted forever
troubled by the way we came together

As you breathe as you breathe it to life

'Cos you are here today and gone tomorrow
