As the sun goes down
And he sends the stars without a sound
I will wait for you, angel
To escape with you, angel

You are far too much beauty
For this world
The sky prefers you
So you can soar

I flew towards the moon in the sky
Its light is bright as your eyes
And then I pray for you, my angel

To escape with you, my angel

You are far too much beauty
For this world
The sky prefers you
So you can soar

Fly away angel
Don't be afraid angel
Fly away angel
Don't be afraid angel

Fly away my angel
Don't be afraid my angel
