"Wash Him Out"

My love was deeper than an ocean
Your love was a river long run dry
Still I fought a constant battle
With a life led in denial

And tho the glint in your eye had gone
I willed it to carry on
Wishing for what wasn't there

I gotta let him go, Let him go
Wash him out of my hair
Let him go, Let him go
Wash him out of my hair

I've always had that mentality
To give more than I ever receive
But I remember mama told me
Most men never change their ways

And it was never more than bittersweet
So I gotta chase him out my dreams
Knowing that he never cared

I gotta let him go, Let him go
Wash him out of my hair
Let him go, Let him go
Wash him out of my hair

Horns

Wash him out
Wash him out my hair...
Wash him out, wash him out, wash him out..
