Run back to life when it's easy
Tell everyone you wanna tell
Got that feeling you were
Telling me all about

When I watch you coming down
It seems like the stairs will fall
You know it's something you can do
To people like me

Don't ever think of
Going away from me
Now I realised you're everything I've always wished for
And now I can't live without
You

I can't say you're all my life
'Cause I like you and me together all time
You're the only one for me
And I can't think of myself in any other way

For those who are laughing
For them who don't care
I just wish for the best
'Cause they will fall in love anytime

Don't ever think of
Going away from me
Now I realised you're everything I've always wished for
And now I can't live without
