A.n.g.e.l

Just like a shadow
I'll be beside you
I'll be your comfort
I'm there to guide you home
I will provide you
A place of shelter
I want a be your zone
What am I supposed to do
Tell me what you wanted me to do
I'll make you great to be a man
With a woman who can stand
On every promise given
Making vows to please her man

If I could be your angel
Your angel, Your angel
Protect you from the pain
(from the pain)
I'll keep you safe from danger
from danger, from danger
You'll never hurt again
I'll be your a.n.g.e.l
a.n.g.e.l, a.n.g.e.l
I'm gonna be your a.n.g.e.l
I'll be your angel

Just like the moon
I'll step aside
And let your sun shine
While I follow behind
Cause baby what ya got
You deserve all the props
You're everything I'm not and I'm so glad your mine
Tell me what you wanted me to do
I'll make you great to be a man
With a woman who can stand
On every promise given
Making vows to please her man

If I could be your angel
Your angel, Your angel
Protect you from the pain
(from the pain)
from danger, from danger
You'll never hurt again

Tell me why there's so many good men
In the world misunderstood
He's a dog, he's no good
If someone ever should Disrespect my man
You're gon' have to come see me
I fight hard for my baby
He's all that I need

So if you got a good one
Put your hands up,
Come on girl and stand up
Go ahead lift your man up
Get up
If you got a good one
Put your hands up
Come on girl and stand up
Get up

If I could be your angel
Your angel, Your angel
(from the pain)
I'm gona be your a.n.g.e.l
I'll be your angel
